Q605) It was recently announced by National Cabinet that the country would aim for 70-80% of the adult population to be fully vaccinated before the use of lockdowns and restrictions is eased in reaction to outbreaks. However, some state and territory leaders have suggested they might apply different rules at different times, such using less severe restrictions once their populations reach 50-60% vaccination or not easing restrictions at 70-80% if case numbers are still high. At what rate of vaccination do you believe that your state or territory should ease restrictions? Base: All.

Q608) As part of these plans, some have proposed that those who are double vaccinated should be granted greater freedoms than those who are not. For example, you might require a vaccine passport for interstate travel or to use hospitality or leisure facilities. Do you agree or disagree that those who are fully vaccinated should be granted greater freedoms like these? Base: All.
